

Holly Hite Tsolis

Learning and Development Consultant

Certified Shapes Facilitator and Situational Leadership Coach

In 2022, Holly Hite Tsolis joined the PsychoGeometrics team after spending the previous three years in the HR field at companies including Teleflex, BASF, and IQVIA. Holly's HR focus areas include talent management, performance management, leadership training & development, and global communications. Her favorite part of her previous jobs was being part of the talent management process and seeing how the right people in the right places impacts not only morale, confidence, and engagement, but also efficiency and overall productivity.

As part of the Shapes Team, Holly focuses on learning, training, and development for Shapes workshops and certifications and also serves as a Certified Shapes Facilitator and Situational Leadership Coach.

While working full-time, Holly earned her master's degree in Psychology with a concentration in Industrial and Organizational Psychology. Holly's Bachelor's degree is from Meredith College in Raleigh, where she majored in psychology with a minor in communications. While managing her full-time college schedule, Holly enjoyed her time as a student-athlete and captain of the Meredith College lacrosse team and was named the first-ever All-American for Meredith College in her junior and senior years.

Holly resides in Cary, NC with her husband, Jordan. Holly and Jordan have a goldendoodle named Avery. Holly enjoys her free time with Jordan, Avery, family, and friends. She loves the beach and likes to participate in most any sports-related activity.
